

Adieu Adieu, To You and You and You

Mr. Windsor

Accomplishments:
35 1/2 years
teaching; 18 at Parkland
Taught Drawing I
Drawing II,
Portfolio Preparation and A.P.
Studio Art

“Patience, a sense of humor, and understanding goes a long way when trying to reach students.”

Mr. Steckel

“I appreciate the relationships that teaching has provided me, both with students and colleagues. I’ll miss these people and the challenges of the profession, but I’m also looking forward to the opportunities that lie ahead.”

Accomplishments:
35 years teaching; 20 at
Dieruff/Allen and 15 at Parkland
Taught Social Studies

Mr. Kohan

“The most important thing I have learned is to take it one day at a time because each day presents new challenges, so start each day as a clean slate.”

Accomplishments:
35 years teaching; 31 at Parkland
Assistant Boys Basketball Coach - 5 years
Garter Bowl Coach- 10 years
Taught Math/Algebra

Mrs. Morffi

“I’ve enjoyed getting to know students’ diverse personalities and cultural differences which, in turn, enhanced the learning experience in my classroom while always maintaining a sense of humor and making education fun.”

Accomplishments:
27 years teaching; 19 at Parkland, 8 in Dominican Republic
Taught Spanish

Mrs. Arbogast

“The most important lesson I have learned is that every student is an individual and has something unique to offer.”

Accomplishments:
27 years teaching; 25 at Parkland
Taught Spanish

Mrs. Barr

“The best part of teaching is getting to know each student personally as much as possible. It is rewarding to see a student who can prepare a meal or sew a garment when they are finished.”

Accomplishments:
35 years at Parkland
Taught Fashion & Computer Aided Design Int. Design

Mrs. Krimmel

“Respect and kindness is very important to and appreciated by people of all ages.”

Accomplishments:
40 years teaching; 35 at Park-
land
Taught Spanish

